

New Homes for Disabled People Delayed

A new housing site for 14 people with learning disabilities in Guernsey is delayed. The Guernsey Housing Association wants it to be perfect.

The project is helped by Health and Social Care, architects, and builders to make safe homes for people with complex needs.

We want to make a great place where people can live on their own and feel good. Everyone knows it's important to do it right for new residents.