

Kieran, 25, learned his kidneys were not working well. He needed dialysis three times a week, which worried him about marrying Lara.

Kieran's dad gave him a kidney. Now, Kieran can have his dream wedding. He is very thankful to his dad.

Kieran was unwell before the transplant. His fiancée and family helped find a donor. Brian was chosen from eight people who offered.

Brian was nervous about the surgery but wanted to help his son. After, he felt happy. The transplant brought Kieran and Brian closer.

Kieran is back to work and happy.
He is excited to marry and travel.
He thanks his dad and enjoys time
