

Calls for Justice and Reparations

UN leader António Guterres urges justice and reparations for Africans. Slavery and colonialism wrongs must be fixed. Laws change to end racial bias.

Guterres wants the world to help Africa by fixing unfair money systems and investing in clean energy.

Guterres wants an African country on the UN Security Council. He believes teaching slavery's true history will help. Philémon Yang agrees and urges action.