

People in Gaza are hungry and finding it hard to get food. There is chaos, and aid can't reach those in need.

The Israeli military hit targets in Gaza. Many are hurt or killed. Police trying to help are attacked, making it harder to get help.

People broke into aid centres for food. Many were hurt. Some say aid is not fair, and they leave with no food.

A new aid system is not working well. The UN says it's not fair and doesn't help everyone. It's meant to stop aid from being stolen.

The Israeli and US governments say the new system stops aid going to the wrong people. But many in Gaza still lack food. It's very hard there.

There are talks to stop fighting. Some want it to end for help, but not all agree, so it continues.

People in Gaza need food, help, and peace. Many have been hurt since the fighting started again.
