

There were protests in Los Angeles about immigration raids. Many were arrested. The Mayor set a curfew to stop damage and keep people safe.

Troops are in Los Angeles to help keep places and people safe during protests. They can't arrest anyone.

California's Governor is upset with President Trump for using more force. He worries other states might have the same issues.

Protests are in cities like New York and Atlanta. Police use tear gas and make arrests. Some Los Angeles businesses have been damaged.

People are upset about immigration raids. The Mayor wants them to stop. President Trump wants to keep using power to stop protests.