

Many people want more children, but money and time are problems. 39% can't afford more kids. In South Korea, 58% say money stops them.