

Learning and Jobs for All

The European Parliament and UNICEF will meet to talk about helping young people with disabilities get jobs through better education and training.

Many EU schools lack money, teachers, and support for students with disabilities, making it hard for them to learn and find good jobs.

The meeting will discuss how to improve schools and use EU funds to help young people with disabilities find jobs. Lunch will be provided.