

Sad News from Sudan

An aid convoy in Sudan was attacked, killing five workers. The United Nations says these attacks must stop and aid must be safe.

Sudanese workers for the World Food Programme and UNICEF died near El Fasher, Sudan, during a conflict. The city hasn't had aid in over a year.

Attacks on aid and hospitals in Sudan make things worse. The UN says these attacks must stop now.