

The Environment Agency wants to know what people think about letting a landfill in Bury treat more waste.

The treatment will recycle metals, wood, and plastic. It will also prepare waste for energy. Strict rules will keep people and the environment safe.

Share your thoughts on the draft decision by 3 July 2025 on the Environment Agency's website or by email.