

May 2025 News Update

The election is over. CID asked the Government to improve health care for people with intellectual disabilities. Everyone deserves good health care.

CID helps people with learning disabilities work with businesses and make things easier to read, like health care and websites.

In June, there are meetings, an expo, focus groups on health, and a film festival about disability. Entries for the festival close on 1 July.