

Sam Gardiner from Race Across The World died in a crash. His family raised over £10,000 for National FASD charity.

Sam has FASD, caused by alcohol before birth. His mum, Jo, said the charity helped them. She hopes more people learn about FASD because of Sam.

Sam was loved by many. His dad, Andrew, started a page to raise money in Sam's memory. The show and fans support the family a lot.