

Anas Sarwar of Scottish Labour said John Swinney ran a "dishonest" campaign. Swinney said Labour's vote "collapsed".

Scottish Labour won the by-election. SNP lost a seat. Reform UK came third and saw the election as a boost.

Swinney said he was not trying to help Reform UK, but was speaking against Nigel Farage. He mentioned that Reform voters were unhappy about the cost.

Sarwar wants more money for people. He criticised media focus on Labour. SNP is getting better after a tough year. Swinney might change his team soon.
