

Funeral Director in Court

A man admitted to 36 crimes, including lying about funerals, not burying people properly, and taking charity money.

Police are checking his business for how he handled ashes. Four charges involve giving families the wrong ashes after losing a baby. Trial in 2026

At court, he wore a grey suit and purple tie. People were shocked when he said he was not guilty. A woman shouted at him. He will return to court.