

Many people said goodbye to Jennie Logan, a firefighter who died in a fire on 15 May at Bicester Motion, along with Martyn Sadler and Dave Chester.

At 10:00, firefighters lined the street for a procession. Jennie's coffin was on a fire engine. Many people, like rugby club members, attended.

Two firefighters were hurt. One is in hospital but getting better. Jennie's family is proud of her bravery and will always remember her as a hero.

A fire in an old hangar was a big incident. People in Bicester are remembering those lost. Firefighters held a minute's silence.
