

Helping Young People in Wales

The Youth Justice Board likes the Welsh Government's plan for justice. They want to help children and make the system fair and kind.

The YJB wants to help children stay out of trouble. They will work with the Welsh Government to make sure children get the help they need.

The Youth Justice Blueprint started in 2019 to help children stay out of crime and get better support.