

News from the Department for Education

The Department for Education shared updates on money and help for schools and colleges.

They talked about pupil premium, free meals, job courses, and managing school money. There are guides for 16 to 19 funding and financial checks.

Schools can join events on buying supplies and hiring teachers. They want feedback on funding. Sign up for emails to stay updated.