

Dame Jilly Cooper's Life and Work

Dame Jilly Cooper, a famous writer, has died at 88. She wrote books like "Riders" and "Rivals" about rich people's lives. Many people loved her books.

Dame Jilly's family said she was a bright light. Her books sold over 11 million copies. She was known for funny, clever stories about love and life.

Many will miss her, including famous people. There will be a private funeral and a public service. She is known for her fun stories.