

Celebrating Learning Disability Tennis

The GB Learning Disability Tennis Team won many medals at the Virtus World Championships. Dominic Iannotti was honoured for his success.

Matthew Chilvers, a tennis coach with autism, made tennis more inclusive. He set up special sessions and was awarded for his efforts.

Learning Disability tennis helps players compete and make friends. It shows that tennis is for everyone and builds confidence.