

The FSA says don't use ocean bound plastics for food packaging. They might not be safe. This doesn't include UK recycled plastics.

The FSA says ocean plastics might not be safe for food packaging. Businesses should find other uses for them.

The FSA helps with recycling to protect the planet. They ensure food packaging is safe. Supermarkets aim to use less plastic and recycle more.