

Meeting About Disability Rights

PWDA is going to a meeting in New York about disability rights. Countries talk about helping people with disabilities.

The meeting is from 10-12 June. It focuses on disability rights, AI, and helping Indigenous people with disabilities. Special event on 9 June.

PWDA will host an online event to end restrictive practices for First Nations people with disabilities. It will have talks and discussions for change.