

Help for People on Benefits

The government will give more money to 4 million homes. People with serious health problems won't need checks for Universal Credit.

13 weeks of extra money for PIP changes. £1 billion plan to help find jobs and boost the economy.

Some people will get help from special advisers to find work. Universal Credit will go up each year for four years to improve social security.