

Air Accident Report

A glider crashed in Sussex on 5 June 2024. The pilot, who was skilled, hit trees while trying to gain height.

The pilot wanted to fly for 5 hours. The glider lost control twice and hit trees. The weather was hard, but the pilot was ready.

The pilot didn't follow training to land safely in a field. A medical issue might have played a part. The accident was investigated.