

New Fund for Port Talbot Jobs

£11.78 million will help Port Talbot businesses grow and create jobs. The UK Government and Tata Steel UK provide the money.

The fund will help make the economy stronger by working with the Welsh Government and local council. It aims to grow the area and create jobs.

Jo Stevens leads the Transition Board, giving £80 million since August 2024 to help workers and projects as Tata Steel changes.