

Family arrives under new UK-France plan.

The UK and France will swap migrants. Critics say it won't stop crossings. Some want safer ways for people to seek asylum.

The UK sends people back and brings others in until 2026. Over 30,000 crossed the Channel this year, but numbers are a bit lower than last year.