

The Met Office warns of storms in east and south-east England. Heavy rain and strong winds may cause flooding and power cuts. Stay safe.

Friday could be very hot, up to 30C in Norwich. Storms will make it cooler on Saturday, with temperatures in the low to mid-twenties.

Yellow warnings for storms in Wales and Scotland. Be careful and check on others. Cooler weather expected on Saturday.