

A man was arrested in Liverpool for the shooting of two Scottish men in Spain. The men were part of a crime group and were shot at a bar. The police.

The shooting happened while watching football. One man was shot outside, one inside. Police in Scotland are helping the Spanish police.

Over 40 people were arrested for other violent acts. Police think the shooting in Scotland wasn't planned. More news will come soon.