

The UK supports the UN's work for justice and asked Serbia to help with arrests.

The UK thanked the UN for quick action on a judge's case. They want things to work well and save money. They are happy about moving archives.

The UK will keep helping the Mechanism. They want it to be small and efficient. They await more ideas from the Secretary-General later this year.