

Carlos Alcaraz won the French Open against Jannik Sinner in a long, exciting match. He saved three points and is happy to be part of tennis history.

Alcaraz, 22, won his second title at Roland Garros. He fought hard and focused on each point. He is proud of the match with Sinner.

Jannik Sinner tried to win his third Grand Slam. He played well after a break and says he has improved and will keep trying.

Sinner will be with family to feel better after losing. His mum watched, but dad wasn't there. Losing hurts, but he won't keep crying.
