

Workbridge in Northampton to Close

Workbridge in Northampton is closing after 45 years. It helped people with learning disabilities and more. People say it was a "lifeline."

Workbridge is run by St Andrew's Healthcare, which says it needs to close to save money. This has upset many people, including Rufia Ashraf, who.

The coffee shop and garden centre will close. Workbridge helped many find jobs. Daily Bread shop will stay open but is thinking about future plans.
