

UN News on Social Inclusion

The United Nations is planning a big meeting in November 2025 to talk about disability rights, family policies, and Indigenous Peoples.

Football teams support the UN's goals to make the world better by using the sport's popularity. This is part of the Football for the Goals Forum.

Cooperatives help with jobs and health. In 2025, they will show how they support the Sustainable Development Goals.