

The French Open is on. Top players like Iga Swiatek and Aryna Sabalenka are playing. Swiatek aims for her fourth win in a row.

Swiatek played against Cristian and won the first set 6-2. Cristian tried hard, but Swiatek's strong forehand helped her win.

Sabalenka won against Olga Danilovic 6-2, 6-3. She was happy and praised Danilovic as a strong player.

Men's tennis matches are often at night because they last longer, giving fans more to watch.

Some people think it's not fair. They want more women's matches at night, just like men's.

Holger Rune from Denmark is playing against Quentin Halys from France. Halys is doing well.

Lorenzo Musetti from Italy is also playing. He is doing well against his opponent, Mariano Navone. Musetti is leading in the match.

There are many exciting matches happening. Fans are watching closely to see who will win and move on to the next round.

The weather in Paris is sunny, which is good for the matches.
Players need to be careful in the heat to play their best.