

Eye Tests for Learning Disability Week

SeeAbility has made a new video for Learning Disability Week. The video talks about how important eye tests are for people with learning.

Famous people share stories about eye tests. The video shows what happens during a test and how glasses can help.

People with learning disabilities often have sight problems. Regular eye tests can help. Look after your eyes to stay healthy.