

Help for Young People in Aviation

The Reach for the Sky Fund offers £750,000 to help young people from tough backgrounds get jobs in aviation.

Apply by 12 September 2025 for funds to run career events and mentorships. It supports aviation jobs, helping over 100,000 young people so far.

The fund helps young people learn about flying jobs. It helps the government grow the flying workforce and inspires diverse communities.
