

Meeting About Citizens' Rights

The UK and EU talked about rights in the Withdrawal Agreement. They want to make sure everyone gets their rights and fix problems soon.

The UK is making it easier to change from pre-settled to settled status. They also talked about travel and health costs.

They want to help people travel easily. They talked about new rules and will meet again in autumn to keep working on this.