

NHS Manager Jailed for 28 Years

An NHS manager was jailed for 28 years for hurting young girls. He used Snapchat to trick them by pretending to be younger with fake names.

Lipscombe did bad things, like hurting girls. He took them to hotels. Police found he sold bad pictures. Snapchat removed his accounts.

A girl named Olivia said Lipscombe contacted her when she was sad. She didn't meet him, but other girls did and were hurt. Olivia thinks Snapchat.