

Israel hit Iran's nuclear sites with air strikes. Many military people and scientists died. Iran sent drones back, but most were stopped.

Strikes hit Iran, including Tehran and Natanz. Fires, smoke, and damage were seen. Iran claims its nuclear work is peaceful, but some doubt this.

The International Atomic Energy Agency is worried. Strikes on nuclear sites are dangerous. Talks about Iran's nuclear plans have stopped.

Leaders want peace. Strikes make oil cost more, raising food and petrol prices. People are watching to see what happens next.
