

New NHS App Changes

The NHS App will help people have more choice and control over their health for better care.

The app uses AI to give health info. "My Companion" helps talk about health. "My Choices" finds care places like pharmacies or hospitals.

The government is helping people start health jobs. Young people, carers, and those with disabilities will get training and job support.