

Helping People with Day Opportunities

Northern Trust's Day Opportunities helps 700+ adults with learning disabilities live independently. Garth Anderson retires after 40 years.

The programme helps people join in volunteering, learning, and fun activities. Now, over 50% join in, up from 2% at the start.

Service users help shape activities. The programme offers daytime activities like jobs and sports. A September event will show its impact and future.