

Muckamore Hospital Inquiry

An inquiry found abuse at Muckamore Abbey Hospital. CCTV helped uncover it in 2017. Families want CCTV in all care settings to protect people.

The inquiry suggests better care for people with learning disabilities. The police support using CCTV in care places to improve safety.

The Department of Health said sorry for not helping patients and families. They are thinking about using CCTV in care homes to keep people safe.