

Muckamore Hospital Update

Seven people are going to court for alleged bad treatment of patients at Muckamore Abbey Hospital in Northern Ireland.

15 people face charges for serious offences, including neglect, at a hospital helping adults with learning disabilities in Belfast.

The hospital's closure is delayed. A public inquiry is happening and will finish soon. A report will be shared next year.