

The UK plans to cut disability benefits by £5bn yearly by 2030. Some may find it harder to get Pip, which will stop 13 weeks after losing it.

People with severe conditions will get more money and can try work without losing benefits. These changes will be in a new law soon.

Labour MPs are upset about changes. They worry it will make more people poor. Some MPs want to stop or change the plans and may vote against them.

The government plans to help people find jobs by November 2026 to reduce poverty and save money on benefits.
