

UK Ships Visit Indo-Pacific

The UK Carrier Strike Group, led by HMS Prince of Wales, is visiting places like Singapore and Japan to help with trade and defence.

The group worked with the Indian Navy and will join an exercise in Australia. This helps keep the area safe and builds strong ties.

The UK will spend more on defence to stay safe. A meeting in Japan will discuss security. This helps with the UK's future safety and success.