

Robert F Kennedy Jr, who questions vaccines, replaced 17 US vaccine committee members with 8 new ones, aiming to restore trust in vaccines.

Kennedy wants a new group to check vaccines are safe and work. He thinks the old group was too fast and had problems. Others say they followed rules.

New members include Joseph R Hibbeln, Martin Kulldorff, and others. Some share Kennedy's views on vaccines and mistrust in health authorities.