

A plane crash in Ahmedabad, India, involved an Air India flight. Many people died. Police found 204 bodies, but not all may be from the plane.

The crash was near the airport where people live. BBC's Yogita Limaye is there, showing the damage and talking about it.

Videos show a plane crash and damage. A man walks away after. Firefighters work hard to stop the fire and help people.

A sad event happened. People are helping. The community and rescue teams are working to learn more and support those affected.