

Visit to Hampshire Coast

Alan Lovell from the Environment Agency visited Hampshire on 16 June 2025 to talk about plans to protect the coast from rising sea levels.

The Hurst Spit to Lymington Strategy helps protect homes. Alan's visit helped understand local concerns. The Environment Agency works with councils.

People are joining community sessions to learn about the plan. More sessions are coming. Talks about the plan will start in June 2026.