

Help for Chagos Islanders in the UK

Chagos Islanders in the UK want British citizenship. They feel unsafe in Mauritius. The UK says they must find their own housing.

Hillingdon Council needs help with new arrivals. They spent a lot on housing and want government support. This affects other important services.

The Chagos Islands are under UK control. Many Chagossians want to return and think the UK should help them go back.