

Bahrain aids disabled people

Bahrain wants to make life better for people with disabilities. The Minister spoke about it at a meeting with other Arab leaders at the UN.

Bahrain is making new rules to help people with disabilities. The Minister thanked the UN for their help and praised teamwork with Arab countries.

Al Alawi said Arab countries should work together to help people with disabilities. He thanked the Arab League and encouraged more teamwork.