

The GOV.UK website uses cookies to work better. You can choose to accept or reject extra cookies.

HM Treasury advises on handling public money, duties, subsidy control, and public land. This is important for all government bodies.