

Two men stole a gold toilet worth £4.8 million from Blenheim Palace in 2019. They were caught and went to prison.

James Sheen was caught for the crime. Police found his DNA and phone messages. He sold part of the toilet for £520,000.

Michael Jones took photos before the theft. He and Sheen planned the crime. Both have broken the law before.

The police took longer to find proof due to COVID-19. They arrested 12 people. Coded messages made the case harder.
