

Scottish Labour won the Hamilton, Larkhall and Stonehouse by-election, taking the seat from the SNP.

Labour surprised SNP and won. Davy Russell, popular locally, is the new MSP. The win was close but important for Labour.

Reform UK came third in the election. They did well for a new party. People unhappy with the cost of living helped them. They hope to do better next time.

The Conservatives lost votes to Reform. They need to change fast to avoid more losses. Scottish politics might change soon.
